

Wage Subsidies - up to $10,000 for employers

What is a wage subsidy?

A wage subsidy is a financial incentive of up to $10,000 (GST inclusive) that is available to qualifying businesses that employ eligible candidates through Workforce Australia.

Payments are available over a six month period

What wage subsidies are available?

You can access the following wage subsidies when you employ eligible candidates through an employment services provider:

- Workforce Australia Services wage subsidy – up to $10,000 (GST inclusive). when you hire an eligible candidate
- Youth Bonus wage subsidy – up to $10,000 (GST inclusive) when you hire eligible candidates who are 15 to 24 years of age.

Is my business eligible?

Your business is eligible for a wage subsidy if it:

- has an Australian Business Number
- has not previously received a wage subsidy for the same candidate
- is not an Australian, state or territory government agency.

What types of jobs can I offer?

The job can be full time or part time and has to be:

- for a minimum 20 hours per week averaged over the six months of the agreement
- ongoing work
- meets the employment standards for the position (for example, is suitable work and pays as a minimum the national award wage).

Apprenticeships and traineeships are also eligible for wage subsidies.

The job cannot displace an existing employee, be a commission based, subcontracting or self-employment position, or work for an immediate family member.

Who can I hire?

To receive a wage subsidy the candidate you employ must be registered with Jobs Statewide and eligible for a Wage Subsidy.

Other eligibility requirements are based on a candidate's circumstances. Talk to us today for more information.

How do I apply?
